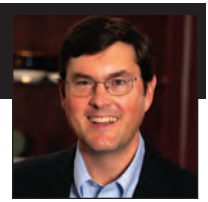
EXECUTIVE BIOS

BOB NUTTING
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD



Robert (Bob) Nutting serves as Chairman of the Board of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He assumed control of the club in 2007, becoming the sixth principal owner in the history of the franchise. Nutting has served as Chairman of the Board and represented his family's interest in the club since 2003.

Nutting's family roots in the greater Pittsburgh region date back as long as the Pirates' 130-year plus history. Nutting brings a history of building successful organizations and a multi-generational commitment to the economic growth in the Pittsburgh region.

Nutting's dedication to giving back to the community in every aspect of his life has brought a refocused philanthropic commitment to the Pirates organization. For more than 15 years, Nutting has led Pirates Charities in making a deep and lasting impact off the field.

Nutting's stewardship of the organization has included a strong commitment to providing Pirates players and staff with the best-of-class facilities in Pittsburgh, the Club's Southern Home in Bradenton, Fla., and the Club's Latin American training academy in the Dominican Republic.

In addition, Nutting has worked to ensure that Pittsburgh remains home to "The Best Ballpark in America" by enhancing the way in which fans engage with the game on the field and with each other, all while promoting PNC Park's widely recognized family-friendly environment.

TRAVIS WILLIAMS
PRESIDENT

Travis Williams began his role as President of the Pirates in November 2019, coming back to a city and working for a team and in a sport that he loves. He is responsible for the baseball and business operations of the organization, with a particular focus on the Club's vision for the future, connection to its fans and commitment to the community.

Upon assuming his role, Williams made it a priority to strengthen the Club's connection with its fans by challenging the business operations team to improve all aspects of fan engagement across the organization. They are laser-focused on delivering lifetime memories and building lasting relationships with every generation of Pirates fans.

Williams also continues to build upon the vision that has been set for the future of PNC Park. It is already considered the "Best Ballpark in America," but he has placed a particular emphasis on enhancing the fan experience at the ballpark and the way in which fans engage with the game on the field and connect with each other off of it.

Williams stresses the importance of community involvement from the front office and players, and that is evidenced through programs such as "Fields For Kids" and the "Miracle League." Since the program's inception nearly 20 years ago, Pirates Charities has donated more than $1.8 million to Miracle League organizations to build fields, develop complexes, cover operating expenses, and provide a place where everyone belongs. Through the "Fields for Kids" grant program, Pirates Charities has provided more than $3.5 million in grants to youth baseball and softball organizations to make necessary improvements to their facilities for youth athletes to have a safe place to play the game we love.

Williams has close to 20 years of Pittsburgh sports executive leadership experience, having spent 11 years as an integral part of the Pittsburgh Penguins' executive team. He returned to Pittsburgh from his position as the President of Business Operations for the New York Islanders of the National Hockey League. During his year in New York, Williams helped the Islanders accomplish a lot in a short period of time, including rebuilding their business operations and breaking ground on a new arena.

While with the Penguins, Williams served as the Chief Operating Officer, overseeing the day-to-day business and arena operations. In addition, Williams oversaw the development of PPG Paints Arena, as well as the construction of UPMC Lemieux Sports Complex.

Williams joined the Penguins in 2008 as Senior Vice President of Business Affairs/General Counsel. Prior to that, Williams was a partner at Reed Smith LLP, where he represented several sports franchises, including the Pirates, as well as regional sports networks and other sports-related businesses during his 12 years.

GREG BROWN
PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Greg Brown is in his 33rd year as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the Pirates. His time with the club matches Lanny Frattare (1976-2008) as far as being the longest-tenured play-by-play announcer in club history.

During the 2025 season, Brown was inducted into the Buffalo Baseball Hall of Fame on August 16, and he received the Bob Prince Award at the annual Art Rooney Awards dinner on September 9 at Acrisure Stadium, an award that honors someone who embodies Prince's enthusiasm for Pittsburgh sports and the community.

Brown will be honored on May 17, 2026, with his induction into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in Harrisburg.

Known for his outgoing personality and passion for the ballclub, the Emmy award-winning broadcaster has made the phrase "Raise The Jolly Roger" synonymous with a Pirates victory and "Clear The Deck, Cannonball Coming" his signature home run call.

Greg's association with the Pirates began in 1979, when he interned in the promotions department while attending Point Park College. Following the World Series that year, Brown worked as the clubhouse manager at Pirate City during the instructional league program in Bradenton, Florida. His 10-year stint in the Bucs front office included work in the Marketing, Public Relations and Broadcasting departments. Greg also served as the team's public address announcer during the 1987 campaign. In 1988, he was a sports anchor on WFMJ-TV in Youngstown, OH.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh's broadcast team in 1994, Brown spent five seasons (1989-1993) doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association (now International League), as well as hosting a sportstalk show on WGR Radio. He also worked as a color analyst and a pre- and post-game show host for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for five seasons (1989-93). Also during his time in Buffalo, he served as a play-by-play announcer for University of Buffalo basketball on WGR Radio and as a broadcaster for the Empire TV Sports Network.

Brown's dedication and passion for the Pirates extends to his efforts away from the broadcast booth, as he makes numerous off-season appearances in the community, both in the Pittsburgh area and in Bradenton during spring training.

JOE BLOCK
PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

The 2026 season marks Joe Block's 11th in his role as a Pirates play-by-play broadcaster on radio and television.

Block was raised in Detroit and nearby Roseville, MI, where he developed the passion for his profession as a boy. His idols were Tigers broadcasters of the time: Ernie Harwell, Paul Carey, George Kell and Al Kaline. Since, he has had the great fortune to work alongside Hall-of-Famer Bob Uecker in his four years broadcasting for the Milwaukee Brewers (2012-15) and in proximity of Vin Scully, while co-hosting the Los Angeles Dodgers' post-game radio show in 2011.

Joe has also called baseball action in the minor leagues in Jacksonville, FL, St. Paul, MN, Charleston, SC, Billings, MT, and Great Falls, MT. He also worked for several years with the New Orleans Hornets in the NBA and called college football, basketball and baseball for various regional TV networks, primarily in the Southeast.

A 1999 graduate of Michigan State University, Block has family ties to the region, namely, his grandparents and great-grandparents who immigrated from Eastern Europe and settled in Byesville, OH, and Wheeling, WV, and, now, by marriage, his wife, Bethany, whose family has lived in Pittsburgh for four generations.

Joe and Bethany, a hospice nurse practitioner, were married in Scott Township and reside in the South Hills, where they raise their three Pittsburgh-born children: Nancy (10), Mary Claire (8) and Zeke (5).

BOB WALK
COLOR ANALYST

Bob Walk is in his 33rd season as a member of the Pirates broadcast crew. In terms of years in the booth, only Steve Blass (34 years) has more tenure than Bob. Greg Brown is also in his 33rd season in 2026, and Lanny Frattare spent 33 years behind the mic from 1976-2008.

The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of his 14 years pitching in the Major Leagues with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record, which included an 82-61 mark with the Pirates.

Walk's professional career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by Philadelphia in the 3rd round of the 1976 June draft. He made his big league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against Kansas City.

During the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984.

Bob was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. One of his finest moments in a Pirates uniform came in 1992 when he pitched a 7-1, complete-game victory over the Atlanta Braves in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk, a native of Newhall, CA, resides in Wexford with his wife, Lorrie. They have three sons; Tommy (46), Johnny (44) and Ronny (36). Tommy and his wife, Dominique, are the proud parents of daughters Makayla (23) and Kylie (20). Johnny and his wife, Nikki, have two children; son Jake (11) and daughter Ella (9).

JOHN WEHNER
COLOR ANALYST

Pittsburgh native John Wehner is in his 22nd season as a member of the Pirates broadcast team. He joined the crew prior to the 2005 season and serves as an analyst on both radio and TV.

JOHN WEHNER HITTING THE FINAL HOME RUN AT THREE RIVERS STADIUM

Entering the 2026 campaign, John has spent a total of 35 seasons in the Pittsburgh organization (1988-1996, 1999-2001 and 2003-2025). Prior to being named to the broadcast team, John spent time as a coach with the Double-A Altoona Curve (2003-2004) after serving the Pirates as a special instructor during spring training in 2002.

John saw his last action in the Major Leagues with the Pirates in 2001. He hit the last home run in the history of Three Rivers Stadium on October 1, 2000, off Chicago's Jon Lieber and also made the final out. In 11 seasons in the Major Leagues, John compiled a .249 batting average, hit four home runs and collected 54 RBI in 461 games. In addition, he shares the Major League record of playing 99 straight errorless games at third base (also Jeff Cirillo).

Wehner is a graduate of Pittsburgh's Carrick High School and attended Indiana University, where he played baseball for three years. He resides in Cranberry Township, with his wife, Brandie, and has five children; sons, Tyler (34) and Brandon (32) and daughters, Hailey (27), Brooke (25) and Hannah (23).

KEVIN YOUNG

MATT CAPPS
COLOR ANALYST

Matt Capps is in his sixth season as a rotating color analyst on both the radio and television broadcasts. He spent two years (2018-19) serving as a pre- and post-game studio host on AT&T SportsNet (now SportsNet Pittsburgh).

Capps, who pitched for the Pirates for five seasons between 2005 and 2009, currently ranks ninth on the club's all-time saves list with 67.

Originally selected by Pittsburgh in the seventh round of the 2002 First-Year Player Draft, Capps made his Major League debut 9/16/05 in game one of a doubleheader vs. Cincinnati.

Capps appeared in a career-high 85 games with the Pirates in 2006; still a club rookie record for most appearances in a season. He also won a career-high nine games in 2006, notching his first big league victory on 5/12 vs. Florida.

Following his final season with the Pirates in 2009, Matt split the 2010 campaign between Washington and Minnesota, saving a career-high 42 games between the two teams.

Capps spent two more seasons with the Twins, pitching in his final big league game on 9/24/12. In 444 career games in the Major Leagues, Matt produced a 29-33 record, 138 saves and a 3.52 ERA (439.2ip/172er).

A native of Douglasville, GA, Capps currently resides in Roswell, GA, with his wife, Jennifer, son, Wells (14), and daughter, Caroline (11). He is a 2002 graduate of Alexander (GA) High School, where he lettered four years in baseball, three years in football, three years in basketball and one year in cross country. Capps signed a letter of intent to play baseball at LSU before signing with the Pirates.

NEIL WALKER
COLOR ANALYST

Neil Walker is in his fifth full season as a member of the Pirates broadcast team. He officially joined the crew in August of 2021 and worked a handful of games toward the end of the season.

Originally selected by the Pirates in the first round of the 2004 First-Year Player Draft (11th pick overall), Walker made his Major League debut on 9/1/09. He collected his first big league hit off St. Louis' Jason Motte on 9/6/09 and hit his first Major League home run on 6/1/10 off Chicago's Ted Lilly.

Walker played 12 seasons in the Majors with the Pirates (2009-2015), Mets (2016-17), Brewers (2017), Yankees (2018), Marlins (2019) and Phillies (2020). In 1306 career games, he produced a .267 batting average, 238 doubles, 22 triples, 149 home runs and 609 RBI.

Walker was converted from a catcher to a third baseman prior to his fourth professional season in 2007 before settling in at second base in 2010. In his Major League career, Neil made 1050 appearances at second base, 131 at first base, 72 at third base, 15 in right field and two in left field. He also retired two of the three batters he faced while making an appearance on the mound with the Phillies on 8/13/20.

In Pirates history, Walker ranks fifth in career games played at second base (802) and his 93 home runs in a Bucco uniform rank third behind Bryan Reynolds (138 entering 2026) and Bobby Bonilla (114) and for most home runs hit by a switch hitter.

The son of former big league pitcher Tom Walker (1972-77), Neil grew up outside of Pittburgh and graduated from Pine-Richland High School in 2004. A two-sport star, he was a catcher ona the baseball team and a wide receiver on the football team. His baseball #24 was retired from Pine-Richland on 7/22/10.

Walker's older sister, Carrie, played basketball with Killarney of the Women's Irish Super League and is married to current Pirates Manager Don Kelly.

Neil and his wife, Niki, reside in Gibsonia, and have two children; daughter, Nora (9) and son, Nolan (6).

KEVIN YOUNG
COLOR ANALYST

Kevin Young is in his fifth year as a rotating color analyst on both the radio and television broadcasts.

Originally selected in the seventh round of the 1990 First-Year Player Draft, Young spent 11 big league seasons playing for the Pirates. After being named Pittsburgh's Minor League Player of the Year in 1991, K.Y. made his Major League debut on 7/12/92 and singled off Cincinnati's Tim Belcher in his second at-bat.

In his 11 seasons with the Pirates (1992-95 and 1997-2003), Young played a total of 1022 games at first base and ranks third on the club's all-time list for games played at that position, behind Gus Suhr (1339) and Jake Beckley (1045).

Young finished his career with a .258 average, 235 doubles, 144 home runs and 606 RBI in 1205 games. He is also one of only two players in team history (also Jason Bay in 2005) to produce at least 100 runs, 40 doubles, 20 home runs, 100 RBI and 20 stolen bases in one season (1999).

Kevin resides in Scottsdale, AZ, and has one son; Kaleb (28) and one daughter; Kaden (20). A graduate of Washington (KS) High School, Young attended Kansas City (KS) Community College for two years, where he was an All-American and recipient of the Rawlings Big Bat Award in the Midwest region. He was also an All-American at the University of Southern Mississippi for one year before being drafted by the Pirates.

2026 COACHES

MANAGER

AGE: 46
BORN: FEBRUARY 15, 1980 IN BUTLER, PA
RESIDES: MARS, PA

APPOINTED: MAY 8, 2025
MLB COACHING EXP: 7 YEARS
FORMER POSITION: UTILITY

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Don Kelly was named the organization's 42nd manager on May 8, 2025, after spending six seasons as Bench Coach. His contract was extended on September 29.

Kelly managed his first game with the Pirates on May 9, 2025, and won a 3-2 decision over the Braves at PNC Park. He was involved in five consecutive one-run games to begin his career, tied with Joe Frazier (1976 Mets) and Bill Bradley (1914 Dodgers) for the second-most in Major League history behind Dave Bancroft of the 1924 Boston Braves (six).

Kelly posted a 59-65 record overall, going 32-33 after the All-Star break. During the 2025 campaign he was ejected a total of four times (5/10 vs. Atlanta, 5/16 at Philadelphia, 5/30 at San Diego and 8/12 at Milwaukee).

The Pittsburgh native spent the 2019 season serving the American League-champion Houston Astros as their First Base Coach, his first stint as a Major League coach.

Prior to joining the Astros, Kelly spent two seasons (2017-18) as a Professional Scout for the Detroit Tigers.

A versatile infielder and outfielder during his playing days, Kelly was originally selected by Detroit in the eighth round of the 2001 First-Year Player Draft. He spent six seasons in the Tigers farm system before signing with Pittsburgh as a minor league free agent after the 2006 campaign.

Kelly made his Major League debut with the Pirates as a pinch hitter against the Astros on April 2, 2007. His first big league hit was a single as a pinch hitter off San Francisco's Russ Ortiz on April 13, 2007, and he connected off Jared Weaver for his first Major League home run on April 21, 2010, at Los Angeles (AL).

While playing with the Tigers in 2011, Kelly saw action at seven different positions, including his first and only appearance on the mound on June 29 vs. New York (NL), and his first career appearance at catcher on July 2 vs. San Francisco.

Kelly appeared in the postseason in four consecutive seasons with Detroit (2011-14), advancing to the World Series in 2012 (San Francisco won all four games). He connected for his only postseason home run in Game Five of the 2011 American League Division Series against the Yankees, taking Ivan Nova deep with a two-run shot in the first inning of Detroit's 3-2 win.

During his big league career, Kelly made 165 appearances in left field, 131 at third base, 112 in right field, 100 at first base, 55 in center field, 17 at designated hitter, nine at second base, five at shortstop and one each behind the plate and on the mound. Entering 2026, he is one of 11 players all-time to play all nine defensive positions and designated hitter over the course of their career.

In 585 Major League games, Kelly compiled a .230 batting average, 28 doubles, nine triples, 23 home runs and 98 RBI with the Pirates (2007), Tigers (2009-2014) and Marlins (2015-2016). He played in his final game on July 27, 2016.

Tony spent the last 11 seasons as the Third Base Coach with the Texas Rangers. He served as the club's interim manager in 2022 from August 15 through the end of the season, with the Rangers going 17-31 over that span.

Beasley saw limited activity in 2016 as he underwent treatment, including surgery, for rectal cancer. The announcement of his diagnosis was made on February 19, 2016, and he was with the club at various points that year throughout spring training, the regular season, and postseason surrounding his chemotherapy treatments in Phoenix, Houston, and Arlington. The announcement declaring that he is cancer-free was made on Dec. 8, 2016.

Prior to joining the Rangers, Tony spent four seasons in the Nationals organization as a minor league co-field coordinator (2014), and Manager at both Triple-A Syracuse (2012-13) and Double-A Harrisburg (2011). He was the club's Third Base Coach in 2006 under Manager Frank Robinson

Primarily a middle infielder, Tony spent nine seasons as a player in the minor leagues and batted .260 with 22 homers and 242 RBI in 854 games. He was originally selected by the Baltimore Orioles in the 19th round of the 1989 June Draft before being acquired by Pittsburgh September 5, 1991.

After serving as a player/coach at Carolina (AA) and Lynchburg (A) in 1998, Tony began his full-time coaching career as the Hitting Coach with the GCL Pirates in 1999. He worked in the same capacity with Lynchburg in 2000.

Beasley spent five seasons as a manager in the Pirates farm system, guiding his club to the postseason in all five years and a combined record of 374-258 (.592 winning percentage) during the regular season. He was named Low Class-A Manager of the Year by Baseball America in consecutive seasons with Hickory in 2002-03, and to the South Atlantic League's mid-season All-Star squad in 2003. Tony guided the Crawdads to the SAL championship and the fifth-best record in the minor leagues in 2002 and was also selected to the league's post-season All-Star Team.

In addition to his regular season managerial duties, Beasley also managed the Mesa Desert Dogs during the Arizona Fall League's 2004 campaign. He guided the club to an 18-13 record and a first-place finish in the National Division (his club lost to the Mesa Solar Sox in the Championship Series).

PITCHING COACH

AGE: 36

BORN: NOVEMBER 13, 1989 IN SUMMIT, NJ

APPOINTED: DECEMBER 18, 2025

MLB COACHING EXP: 5 YEARS

FORMER POSITION: RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Bill Murphy was named Pittsburgh's Pitching Coach on December 18, 2025.

Murphy spent the last four seasons (2022-25) as Houston's Pitching Coach after serving as the Astros Assistant Pitching Coach during the 2021 season.

During his four years overseeing the Astros pitchers, the team's staff posted the lowest ERA among all teams in Major League Baseball (3.61).

In 2022, Murphy played an integral role in what was a record-setting season by the Astros pitching staff. Houston's staff led the American League in several key categories, including ERA (2.90), batting average against (.212) and WHIP (1.09). All three totals were the best in club history for a full, 162-game season.

The club's bullpen ERA of 2.80 in 2022 was tops in Major League Baseball and the third-best in franchise history.

Pitching was the key to Houston's outstanding postseason run in 2022, as the staff posted a 2.29 ERA in 13 games overall and a 0.83 ERA in the bullpen. Additionally, Astros pitchers had a .172 batting average against with a 0.95 WHIP during the 2022 run to the World Series title.

Murphy served as the Astros minor league Pitching Coordinator for the 2019-20 seasons. In 2020, as a result of the pandemic, he worked with minor league pitchers at the Astros alternate training sites and then worked with the Instructional Camp in Florida in October.

Murphy began his coaching career with the Astros organization as Pitching Coach for Rookie Level Greeneville in 2016. He then served as pitching coach for Class-A, Short-Season Tri-City (2017) and Double-A Corpus Christi (2018), respectively.

Prior to joining the Astros, Murphy served stints as the Pitching Coach at Brown University, and co-Manager and Pitching Coach for the Northwoods Collegiate League's Battle Creek Bombers.

He was also a volunteer assistant coach at Georgetown University in 2013, and also coached in the Cal Ripken Collegiate League with the Rockville Express.

Negrón spent the last four seasons on the Seattle Mariners Major League staff as their Third Base Coach (2025) and First Base Coach (2022-24).

In 2021, Negrón managed Tacoma (Mariners' AAA) to a 78-52 record. Rather than hold playoffs for its championship that season, the Triple-A West's 2021 title was awarded to the team with the best regular-season record. The Tacoma Rainiers won this championship by two games, ahead of the Sugar Land Skeeters.

Following his playing career, Kristopher served the Mariners as the Assistant to the Director of Player Development in 2000. Originally selected by Boston in the seventh round of the 2006 First-Year Player Draft, Negrón began his professional playing career with the GCL Red Sox later that summer.

After spending three years in the Red Sox minor league system, Negrón was traded to the Reds for infielder Álex González on August 14, 2009.

Kristopher made his Major League debut as a pinch runner with the Reds against the Pirates on June 7, 2012. He collected his first big league hit as a pinch hitter on June 14, 2012, singling off Cleveland's Scott Barnes at Great American Ball Park in Cincinnati.

Negrón posted career highs in games (49), home runs (six) and RBI (17) with the Reds in 2014. He also connected off Pittsburgh's Francisco Liriano for his first big league home run that season on July 13.

In parts of six Major League seasons with the Reds (2012, 2014-15), Diamondbacks (2017-18), Mariners (2018-19) and Dodgers (2019), Negrón combined to hit .221 (83-for-375) with 14 doubles, nine home runs and 32 RBI in 170 games.

PNC PARK STATUES

HONUS WAGNER

The Honus Wagner statue has had three different "homes" since being dedicated on April 30, 1955. Originally, the Wagner statue was located in Schenley Park, close to the Pirates early home, Forbes Field. It was then moved to Three Rivers Stadium and erected outside Gate C on July 21, 1972.

The statue is now located at the home plate entrance to PNC Park. Honus Wagner's statue was sponsored by the Pittsburgh Professional Baseball Association as a lasting tribute to his character and abilities. Contributions to the statue fund were in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $1.00 and were received from thousands of individuals, organizations and foundations. Names of all contributors were then inscribed on one continuous roll and put in a stainless steel, hermetically-sealed tube before being placed inside the statue.

"No one player has ever brought more honor to the game of baseball than has Honus Wagner," said former Pirates President Bill Benswanger, who served as master of ceremonies at the original statue dedication in 1955.

DID YOU KNOW?

Bucco Hall-of-Famer Honus Wagner is just one of three players to accumulate at least 3,000 hits, 600 doubles and 500 stolen bases during his career. The other players are Ty Cobb and Paul Molitor.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

The Roberto Clemente statue was dedicated on July 8, 1994, to kick off All-Star Week in Pittsburgh. It was originally erected outside Gate A at Three Rivers Stadium and is now located outside the Center Field Gate to PNC Park, a few steps away from the Roberto Clemente Bridge.

The base of the statue is black granite and stainless steel with a diamond set in the center. Glass blocks represent first, second and third base. Beneath the glass is soil from Puerto Rico — where Roberto first played the game — Forbes Field and Three Rivers Stadium. The soil is marked as "hallowed ground," a place of transcendence where the past, present and future of baseball meet and to which each individual can bring his or her own memories.

Encircling the diamond and set in the stainless steel is a timeline of Clemente's life. Fifteen inscriptions run counter-clockwise around the diamond, beginning at home plate and ending somewhere between third base and home. There is space for a 16th inscription, but it remains empty, a reflection of the incomplete circle of Roberto Clemente's life. Susan Wagner sculpted the 12-foot bronze statue of Clemente and L.D. Astorino & Associates, Ltd., served as the architect of the project.

DID YOU KNOW?

Roberto Clemente led the Major Leagues in hits and batting average during the decade of the 60's. In that 10-year span, Clemente recorded 1,877 hits to top the list, 58 ahead of Hank Aaron (1,819), while producing a .328 batting average.

WILLIE STARGELL

On September 29, 2000, the Pirates announced that a statue of Willie Stargell would be unveiled at the club's new home, PNC Park. The announcement was made during the last weekend of Pittsburgh's final games at Three Rivers Stadium.

Stargell, however, did not live to see the day he would be forever immortalized at the statue unveiling on April 7, 2001. After not being able to attend the unveiling ceremony because of an illness, the Hall-of-Famer passed away in the early morning hours of April 9, the same day PNC Park officially opened its doors to begin a new era of Pirates baseball.

The 12-foot bronze statue stands along Federal Street at the entrance to left field at PNC Park. At the base of the statue is a quote from Stargell: "Last night, coming in from the airport, we came through the tunnel and the city opened up its arms and I felt at home." Also throughout the base of the statue are "Stargell stars," which the Pirates all-time home run leader handed out to his teammates toward the conclusion of his 21-year playing career with Pittsburgh.

DID YOU KNOW?

Willie Stargell is the all-time home run leader in Pirates history. He hit a total of 475 homers in his 21-year career—all coming in a Bucco uniform. "Pops" led all National League players with 289 home runs hit over the 10-year span from 1968-1977, trailing only Reggie Jackson (312) for the Major League lead.

BILL MAZEROSKI

As part of the 50th anniversary season of the 1960 World Series Championship, the Pirates announced plans on January 29, 2010, to erect a statue of Hall-of-Fame second baseman Bill Mazeroski.

The 12-foot bronze statue was officially unveiled on September 5, 2010, Mazeroski's birthday, and stands at the end of Mazeroski Way, which is located at the right field entrance to PNC Park. Susan Wagner, who sculpted the Clemente, Stargell and Kiner statues, also produced this likeness of Maz.

Mazeroski remains the only player in Major League Baseball history to hit a game-winning home run in Game 7 of a World Series. His blast off New York's Ralph Terry on October 13, 1960, gave the Bucs a 10-9 victory in the deciding game played at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh.

Elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2001, the Pirates retired Mazeroski's uniform #9 in 1987. He was a seven-time All-Star and holds numerous Major League records for second basemen, including most seasons leading the league in assists (nine), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,707).

Dedicated 2010 (PNC Park)

DID YOU KNOW?

Bill Mazeroski holds the Major League record for most seasons (eight) leading the league in double plays and the most double plays turned in one season (161 in 1966). "Maz" still remains the only player in MLB history to hit a game-ending home run in Game Seven of the World Series.

TEAM HISTORY

TEAM HISTORY

THE EARLY YEARS

Now in their 140th National League season and 144th overall, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenys brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenys were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenys reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenys defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenys' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League — the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But in 1891 Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

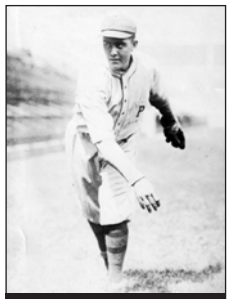
The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates. In the largest player transaction in Pirates history, the Hall-of-Fame owner brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell — plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World Championship in 1909.

Fred Clarke, Tommy Leach & Honus Wagner



Babe Adams

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Americans, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three. In the Series, Phillippe started five of the games.

The Pirates, baseball's first "dynasty," finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers — Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions — Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

THE FORBES FIELD YEARS

Forbes Field | Opening Day - June 30, 1909

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30 that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park — which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium — their home. Described as the "Hialeah of Ballparks" when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league's second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920's — with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey — Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The '25 World Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, became the first team in history to erase such a deficit to win the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter "Big Train" Johnson in Game Seven. Kiki Cuyler delivered the game-winning, two-run double in the 8th inning for a thrilling 9-7 victory.

The 1925 World Series champs featured Hall-of Famers Max Carey, Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler and manager Bill McKechnie.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a club rookie record .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed "Big Poison" — batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd — who was tagged "Little Poison" — hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against New York's famed "Murderer's Row" with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig, who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

The Waners were consistently among baseball's premier hitters during the 1930's with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era's best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in batting in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined in Cooperstown.

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirates uniform (1946-52) — which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th and May 28th (that mark was matched by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games while winning a Major League record 18 games in relief.

Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including 2001 Hall-of-Fame inductee Bill Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon, Elroy Face and Hall-of-Fame right fielder Roberto Clemente.

In 1956, Pirates owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as general manager. With the club languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager. Within three seasons, the Bucs were champions of the National League and once again faced the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth — thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth — but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the score. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in Game Six of the 1993 Fall Classic.

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

THE THREE RIVERS STADIUM YEARS

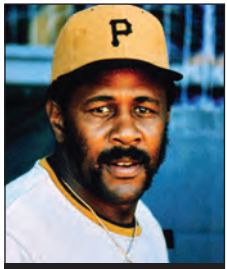
Three Rivers Stadium

The changing of the decade also brought along a change to the home ballpark of the Pirates. After playing in cavernous Forbes Field since June 30, 1909, the Bucs began play at a multi-purpose stadium located at the confluence of Pittsburgh's three rivers. The aptly named Three Rivers Stadium played host to its first game on July 16, 1970, with the Pirates losing a 3-2 decision to the Reds.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In the first 25 years of divisional play, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club. The Pirates put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning %).

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente, who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award.

Roberto Clemente



Willie Stargell

In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors — as he did during the regular season — with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home run hitter of the 1970's (296). While the Pirates brought two world championships back to Pittsburgh during the 1970s, the Pittsburgh Steelers also came to prominence. The Steelers won four Super Bowls during the 70s, which, coupled with the Pirates success, helped garner Pittsburgh the "City of Champions" label.

On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to Pittsburgh Associates; a group of private investors who were committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh.

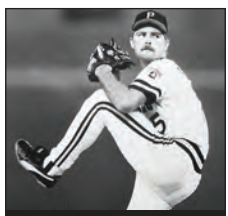
Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors representing six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group included the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.

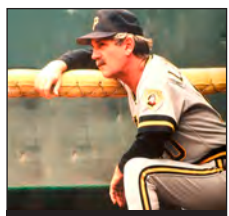
With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Bucs became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Bonds captured MVP honors in 1990 and 1992, while Drabek won the Cy Young award in '90. Hall-of-Fame manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 11 seasons at the helm, Leyland won 849 games, placing him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

Pittsburgh was on the brink of a World Series berth in both the 1991 and 1992 season, but the Pirates lost the seventh and deciding game each year to the Atlanta Braves. In 1992, Pittsburgh came within one out of the Fall Classic. But in the bottom of the ninth inning at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, the Braves triumphed with three runs and won the game, 3-2, and the series, four-games-to-three.

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991.



Doug Drabek



Manager Jim Leyland

A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional baseball game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994. In one of the most thrilling All-Star Games ever to be played, the National League prevailed over the American League in extra frames. Fred McGriff helped send the game into extra innings when he delivered a two-run, pinch-hit home run off Lee Smith in the bottom of the ninth inning that tied the score. After the American League failed to score in the top of the 10th inning, the National League broke its six-game losing streak when Tony Gwynn scored on a double by Moises Alou.

A new chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Associates.

Picked by many publications to finish last in 1997, the Pirates remained in the division race until the final weekend of the season and the club was named USA Today's "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. Major League Baseball also underwent a change in 1997 with the birth of Interleague play. That season, the Pirates welcomed the Kansas City Royals to Three Rivers Stadium on June 13 for the club's first interleague matchup, which Pittsburgh won by a score of 5-3.

While the Bucs contended for the division during the entire 1997 season, one of the most memorable moments of the season came on July 12. That night, pitchers Francisco Cordova and Ricardo Rincon thrilled Pirates fans with the only combined, extra-inning no-hitter in Major League history. The game ended in the bottom of the 10th inning when Mark Smith delivered a three-run home run for the 3-0 win.

The 2000 season brought an end to a full century of great moments, a 100-year period which began with three straight National League pennants and ended with an aura of hope and dreams of more championships to come. With a new home on the horizon, the Bucs said goodbye to Three Rivers Stadium with their final game ever played there on October 1, 2000. Three no-hitters, Clemente's 3000th hit, two All-Star Games, countless playoff games, two World Championships and endless summer evenings can be associated with no other place in the history of Pittsburgh than Three Rivers Stadium.

The Pirates closed out their 30-year tenure at Three Rivers Stadium with a 10-9 loss to the Chicago Cubs in the final game of what was the club's home since 1970. Pittsburgh native John Wehner smacked the final home run in the history of the ballpark off Chicago's Jon Lieber. Ironically, Wehner also grounded out to third base for the final out ever at Three Rivers. With the loss, Pittsburgh closed out Three Rivers Stadium with a record of 1,324 wins and 1,082 losses.

In the early morning of February 11, 2001, Pittsburgh bid farewell to Three Rivers when the home of the Pirates and Steelers was imploded.

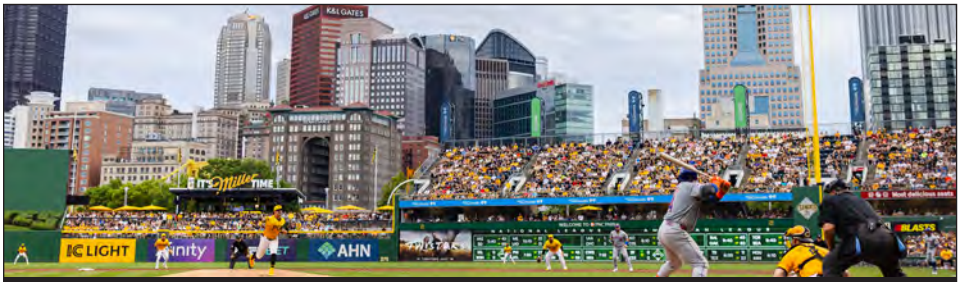
THE PNC PARK YEARS



PNC Park

PNC Park officially opened its gates on April 9, 2001. Regarded by many as the best ballpark ever built, PNC Park is an intimate two-level structure which offers all fans dramatic views of the downtown skyline as well as the natural grass playing surface. After touring all 30 Major League ballparks during the summer of 2003, ESPN.com ranked PNC Park as the best in baseball.

The anticipation and joy of a new ballpark turned to sorrow, when on the morning of the first regular season game at PNC Park, a beloved member of the Pirates family was lost when Willie Stargell passed away on April 9, 2001.

Despite suffering 100 losses for just the seventh time in club history in 2001, fans came out in record numbers as the Bucs played in front of 19 sellouts and a total of 2,436,139 customers during the inaugural season at PNC Park.

On June 25, 2002, the Pirates registered the 9,000th win in the history of the franchise with a 4-1 victory over the Montreal Expos, thus becoming just the fourth club to produce 9,000 wins.

The Pirates have had a long list of sluggers in their history and Brian Giles added his name to that list during his five seasons in a Bucco uniform. He hit 30 or more home runs in each of his first four seasons with the club, just one of three Pirates to hit 30 or more long balls in four consecutive years (also Hall-of-Famers Ralph Kiner and Willie Stargell). His 165 home runs with Pittsburgh rank seventh in club history.

Jason Kendall

Catcher Jason Kendall spent each of his first nine big league seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform after being selected in the first round of the 1992 June draft. In that time, he made 1,205 appearances behind the plate. That figure ranks first all-time in the annals of the club, 50 games ahead of George Gibson, who caught for the Bucs from 1906 thru 1915. Kendall surpassed Gibson's 90-year-old record in Los Angeles on August 3, 2004.

For the first time in team history a Pittsburgh player captured Rookie-of-the-Year honors as outfielder Jason Bay took home the honors in 2004. A two-time National League All-Star, Bay was a fan favorite at the 2006 All-Star Game in Pittsburgh.

The national spotlight shined once again on the city of Pittsburgh during the 2006 season as the Major League Baseball All-Star Game was played at PNC Park, marking the fifth time the event has been held in the Steel City. The American League won a dramatic 3-2 decision in the Midsummer Classic as the Pirates became the first team in baseball history to host the All-Star Game in three different venues.

Jason Bay & Freddy Sanchez - 2006 All-Star Game

Also in 2006, Freddy Sanchez added his name to the club's record list of 25 batting champions as his .344 average led the National League. Sanchez banged out 200 hits in 2006 and led the N.L. with 53 doubles while being named to his first of two All-Star teams.

On January 18, 2007, Bob Nutting officially assumed control of the ballclub, thus becoming only the sixth principal owner in the Pirates storied history. Following a deep look into the team's operations, Nutting introduced Frank Coonelly as the team's new president on September 13, 2007 and, in-turn, Neal Huntington as the team's new general manager on September 25, 2007.

Between 2009-2016, fans witnessed the debuts of first-round draft picks Andrew McCutchen, Pedro Alvarez, Neil Walker, Gerrit Cole and Jameson Taillon along with appearances of many other young players, including Starling Marte, Gregory Polanco and Josh Bell.

Clint Hurdle was named manager of the Pirates on November 15, 2010, and in his first five seasons at the helm, the inspirational leader posted a 431-379 record while leading the Bucs to the postseason three times.

During the 2012 campaign, Bucco fans showed their great support of the club as the Pirates played host to 17 sellouts during the season.

McCutchen also emerged as one of the best players in the game, winning a Gold Glove and Silver Slugger award in 2012 while finishing third in the National League MVP voting.

In 2013 the Pirates returned to prominence in the league as they won 94 regular season games and appeared in the postseason for the first time since 1992.

The Pirates placed five players on the 2013 All-Star team — the most since also having five selected to the 1972 Game. Along with McCutchen, Pedro Alvarez, Jason Grilli, Jeff Locke and Mark Melancon represented the Bucs at the 2013 All-Star Game, played at Citi Field in New York.

Led by 16-game winner and the National League Comeback Player-of-the-Year Francisco Liriano, the Bucco pitching staff posted 16 shutouts in 2013 and ranked third in the N.L. with a 3.26 ERA; the best mark by the pitching staff since 1984. Grilli (33) and Melancon (16) picked up 49 of the club-record and National League leading 55 saves.

The offense was led by McCutchen, who took home N.L. MVP honors in 2013 after hitting .317 with 97 runs, 38 doubles, 21 home runs, 84 RBI and 27 stolen bases in 157 games. McCutchen became the sixth player in club history to win the MVP award, joining Dick Groat (1960), Roberto Clemente (1966), Dave Parker (1978), Willie Stargell (1979) and Barry Bonds (1990, 1992).

Silver Slugger award winner Pedro Alvarez shared the league lead in home runs in 2013, as the young slugger smacked 36 long balls to become the first Bucco to lead or share the N.L. lead in homers since Willie Stargell did so with 44 in 1973.

After winning 94 games during the 2013 regular season and finishing second in the N.L. Central standings, the Pirates defeated the Reds in the Wild Card playoff game, played before a sold out crowd at PNC Park on October 1.

2013 Wild Card Champions

The Pirates had a two-games-to-one lead in the best of five Division Series playoff against the Cardinals, but dropped the final two games to bring an end to their magical 2013 campaign. The Bucs produced a record 23 sellouts during the 2013 regular season before playing in front of three standing-room only crowds in the postseason.

Clint Hurdle also took home some hardware following the 2013 season as he was named the N.L. Manager-of-the Year; just the second Bucco skipper to win the award.

The Pirates reached the postseason again in 2014 while drawing 2,442,564 fans and averaging 30,155 for their 81 home dates. In addition, the Bucs posted 23 regular season sellouts for the second consecutive year.

With a combination of the second-best OBP in the National League (.333) and a pitching staff that posted the second-lowest ERA (2.94) over the final two months of the season, the Pirates won 88 games in 2014, finishing 2.0 games behind St. Louis in the Central division race.

Josh Harrison finished second in the N.L. batting race while Andrew McCutchen once again put up MVP-type numbers, leading the Pirates to the postseason in back-to-back seasons for just the sixth time in franchise history.

Andrew McCutchen

The final game of the 2014 season was played on October 1 as a standing-room only crowd of 40,629 watched eventual World Series MVP Madison Bumgarner shut down the Bucs in the Wild Card Game as the Giants began their run toward the championship.

For the sixth time in franchise history, and for the first time since 1991, the Pirates won 98 games in a season as the 2015 squad posted a 98-64 record. The Pirates also established a club-record attendance figure in 2015, drawing 2,498,596 fans and averaging 30,847 fans for their 81 home dates. The Bucs went 53-28 at home, setting a record for most wins in a season at PNC Park.

During the 2015 campaign, Pittsburgh posted its 10,000th franchise win on September 24, becoming the fifth club to record as many victories.

For the third straight year the Pirates hosted the N.L. Wild Card Game in 2015, making the postseason three consecutive years for just the fourth time in team history.

Mark Melancon set a club record and led the Major Leagues with 51 saves in 2015. In addition, Gerrit Cole won 19 games, Starling Marte captured a Gold Glove Award for his fielding excellence and Andrew McCutchen won the prestigious 2015 Roberto Clemente Award for his many community endeavors.

The 2017 season saw the emergence of another young talented player as Josh Bell set a National League record for most home runs hit by a switch-hitting rookie (26).

Bell placed his name in the record books during the 2019 season, putting up one of the best offensive months in MLB history. The N.L. All-Star hit .390 with 12 homers, 31 RBI and a 1.238 OPS in May while setting the club record for most total bases (94) in a month. He also became just the third National League player in history to produce at least 12 doubles and 12 home runs in any calendar month.

Derek Shelton was named the 41st manager in team history on November 27, 2019 while Ben Cherington took over General Manager duties - the 13th GM in Pirates history - prior to the 2020 campaign.

The 2020 season was shortened to 60 games due to the international COVID-19 pandemic. Travel was also limited as the Pirates played teams only from the N.L. and A.L. Central divisions.

For the 50th time in club history, a Gold Glove award was given to a Pirates player as Jacob Stallings took home the hardware for his catching excellence in 2021.

A total of 25 rookies appeared in at least one game for the Bucs in 2022 and combined for a club-record 56 home runs, led by Jack Suwinski (19) and Oneil Cruz (17).

Third baseman Ke'Bryan Hayes captured a Gold Glove award in 2023 - the first won by a Pittsburgh player at that position.

The 2024 season was highlighted by the emergence of Paul Skenes, who started the All-Star Game and captured N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year honors. Bryan Reynolds set the club record for the longest hitting streak by a switch-hitter (25 games), Jared Triolo won a Gold Glove Award as a utility player and Aroldis Chapman set the club record for most strikeouts by a left-handed relief pitcher (98).

Paul Skenes became the third Pirates pitcher to win the Cy Young Award when he was voted the unanimous winner in 2025. Skenes also started the All-Star Game for the second straight year in '25 and went on to break the club record for most strikeouts in season by a RHP (216).

Andrew McCutchen continued adding his name to the all-time Pirates offensive leaderboards in 2025, moving ahead of Roberto Clemente on the club's home run list and surpassing Honus Wagner for fourth place on the walks list. Additional highlights in 2025 included Mitch Keller becoming the all-time leader in strikeouts at PNC Park, Oneil Cruz joining Barry Bonds as the only two players in team history with 20 homers and 35 stolen bases in a year and Don Kelly taking over the mangerial duties on May 9.

The jersey of this period was short-sleeved with no trim except for a dark blue collar. Stockings were dark blue with red stripes and the cap was blue with a white "P". A "PBC" monogram signifying Pittsburgh Baseball Club was also added to the left sleeve later in the decade.

1911-1920

The regular collar was replaced by the short, stand-up "cadet" style with a button collar. Pinstriped material was also introduced. As the team nickname became more accepted, "Pirates" was displayed in capital letters down the button lapel (1912). The cadet-style collar soon gave way to a tapered collar extension, but the button lapel remained solid dark blue with white buttons and a "P-P" straddling the top button (1913-14). Later in this decade, the cap had piping and also included a "P" in white or red.

1921-1932

Standard white uniforms were worn at home and gray on the road with simple graphics and solid colors. The 1925 & '27 championship teams wore the standard capital "P" on its sleeves but not on the jersey. A red "P" was also placed on the solid blue cap.

1933-1937

The Pirate uniforms brightened up considerably with added colors, trim features and graphics. The name "Pirates" was placed across the jersey in an arc of fancy red and blue capital letters. Solid blue belts were included and piping trim on the uniforms included blue and red.

1938-1939

1940-1941

The uniform abandons the traditional "P" or "Pirates" for an emblem of an actual buccaneer. The patch was placed on the left breast of both the home and road jerseys. This was the first time an emblem of the team's nickname was ever worn on a game jersey.

1940-1944

1947

1948

The team replaced the traditional blue and red with the present day black and gold. The script "Pirates" and "Pittsburgh" was replaced with the block lettering that you still see today. The cap became solid black with a gold "P."

1954

The word "Pittsburgh" is removed from the road jersey, and replaced with "Pirates."

1957

1962

Numbers were introduced on the front of the home and road jerseys and have been there ever since.

1970

The Pirates became the first major league club to adopt the new double-knit fabric uniforms, which they debuted at the first game at the new Three Rivers Stadium in July. The jersey became a pullover with no button or zipper. The pants contained a built-in sash belt. The cap crown was mustard yellow with a black bill. Within two years, nearly every other club was wearing a double-knit uniform.

1976

The Pirates, as well as other clubs, commemorate the National League's centennial by wearing the old striped, pill-box style caps. The Bucs wore yellow caps with a black bill and black stripes.

1977-1979

Abandoned were the traditional white and gray uniforms in exchange for combinations of white, gold, black and pinstriping. The caps became black with yellow stripes. Players' last names appear on the back of the jerseys for the first time.

1985

1987

The Pirates replaced the striped cap in favor of the traditional standard black round crown type.

1990

A script "Pittsburgh" is added to the gray road uniform for the first time since 1947.

1995

1996

That change lasted only one year, as the Pirates return the names to the back of the jerseys.

1997

The organization introduces a complete new look by wearing an alternate home jersey as well as bringing the color "red" back into the uniform for the first time since 1946.

2001

With the opening of PNC Park, the club enters a "New Era of Baseball." The team re-introduces the sleeveless jersey as part of both the home and road uniform. The Pirates also become the first team ever to wear a cap with a red underbill (cap worn with the alternate home jersey only).

2005

The Pirates re-introduce pinstripes to the uniform. The alternate uniforms are worn on Sunday home games.

2007

2009

The Pirates re-introduce sleeves to their home and road jerseys and added a black alternate jersey. The sleeveless pinstriped jersey are worn on Sundays through the end of 2010.

2013

The club introduces an alternate uniform mustard gold cap which was worn on Sunday home games throughout the season. The pullover style jersey was similar to the one from the early 1970's. The front of the jersey featured black "Pirates" lettering outlined in mustard gold on the chest, as well as the player's number below the lettering on the left hand side of the jersey. The players' names were added to the back of the jerseys to go along with their number, as opposed to the 1970 jerseys that did not feature the names. These jerseys were worn through the end of 2015.

2015

The club introduces camouflage jerseys to be worn on selected home dates.

2016

The Pirates introduce a gold jersey/black pant uniform combination to be worn on Sunday home games. The club also wore a pill-box style cap with the uniform

2020

The Pirates re-introduce the script "Pittsburgh" to the road uniform in both gray and black uniforms.

2023

MVP Dick Groat, along with pitchers Elroy Face, Bob Friend and Kent Tekulve. Friend started the most games in team history and ranks first in strikeouts. Face is the all-time team leader in appearances and Tekulve posted the most saves in a Bucco uniform (since 1969).

Law was the first Cy Young Award winner in team history (1960) and ranks fourth on the club's all-time list in innings pitched and sixth in wins. Oliver, who was a three-time All-Star and a 1971 World Series champion with the Bucs, finished his illustrious career with 2,743 hits.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

The Roberto Clemente Award is given annually to the Major League Baseball player who "best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team," as voted on by baseball fans and members of the media. Originally known as the Commissioner's Award, it has been presented by MLB since 1971. In 1973, the award was renamed after Clemente following his death in a plane crash while delivering supplies to victims of the Nicaragua earthquake on 12/31/72. Each year, a panel of baseball dignitaries selects 1 player from 30 nominees, one from each club. Teams choose their nominee during the regular season, and the winner is announced at the World Series.
